

Hear it from Progressive customers

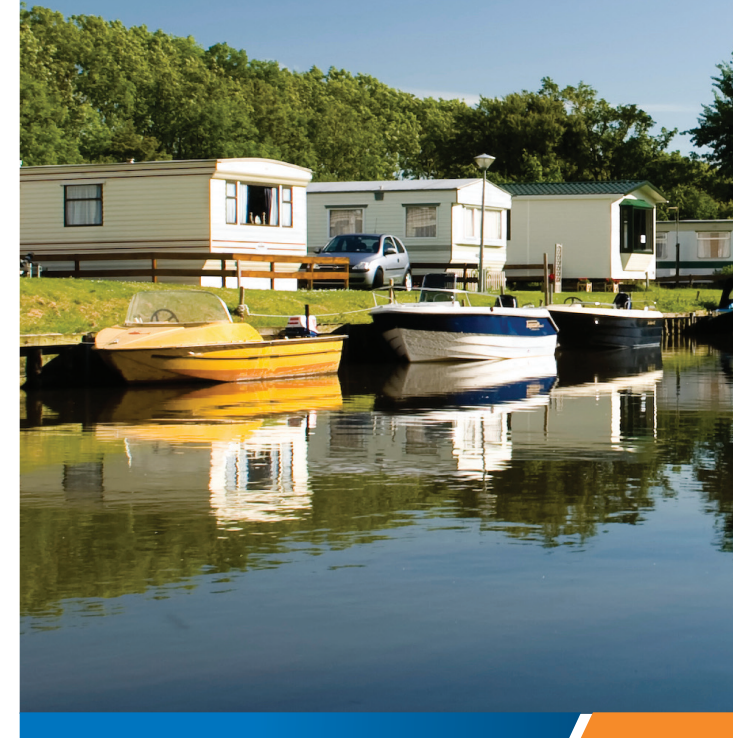

"We were so pleased with Progressive's response to our roof being damaged. Since we've never had a claim, we didn't know what to expect. The Progressive adjuster was friendly and reassuring. They thoroughly examined the damage and cut us a check on the spot so we could get our repairs done right away. We are so appreciative and amazed by how our claim was handled. Thanks, Progressive."

Coverage you can count on

We offer coverage options that help ensure you have the right level of protection, whether or not your home is your primary residence.

Primary Residence—The titled owner or member of the immediate family lives in the home a minimum of nine months a year.

Seasonal/Secondary Residence—Your home is not used as primary residence, but rather occasionally for vacation, weekend or recreational purposes. May not be used as rental property.

Rental Residence—The primary occupant is not an immediate relative of the titled owner. These units may or may not be rented to others for monetary or other compensation. Progressive does not offer coverage for tenants.
